FOR AN INTRODUCTION TO THIS REPRINTED SERIES, SEE VOLUME I.

PREFACE.

The bulk of the Plea Rolls preserved in the Public Record Office is so great that it would be impracticable to deal with them according to the system adopted by Mr. James Mills in his valuable Calendar of the Justiciary Rolls of Ireland. The utmost that can be attempted is such an Index as will guide enquirers to original documents in which they may find some information of interest.

By way of experiment, the present volume has been compiled from the rolls of the Court of Common Pleas, known as Placita de Banco, of the first two years of the reign of Edward III., embracing altogether eight legal terms, designated as H. E. T. and M.

According to the recent numeration of the Plea Rolls,

Hilary	1 Edw. III.	is	Placita	de Banco,	Roll 268
Easter	„	„	„	„	269
Trinity	„	„	„	„	270
Michaelmas	„	„	„	„	271
Hilary	2 Edw. III.	„	„	„	272
Easter	„	„	„	„	273
Trinity	„	„	„	„	274
Michaelmas	„	„	„	„	275

The suits have been arranged in counties, in conformity with the entries in the margin of the rolls. In a few cases, these are apparently incorrect, as on page 654, where a suit about land at Shakerston and Neuton by Swepston (Co. Leicester) is assigned to Surrey, and on page 673, where a suit about land at Merewe (Co. Surrey) is assigned to Sussex.

When the word "Concord" is given in the third column in this List, the roll contains a note of the payment by one of the parties to a Fine for licence to agree (pro licencia concordandi).

When the word "Fine" is given, the roll contains a record of proceedings in connexion with the due levying of a fine. Some of the "Concords" thus noted on the Rolls are not recorded among the "Feet of Fines" preserved in the Public Record Office.
